Fact review dates appear beside each source. This is a planning document; entry, tickets, bookings and live navigation are not included.

This file preserves your saved stop order; it does not replan the route. Times and durations are planning suggestions. Transport, meal buffers and opening times have not been revalidated.

The generation date is separate from fact review dates. Recheck current hours, tickets, reservations, identity requirements and temporary controls before travel. Map links and QR codes need internet.

Booking flags and notes are saved itinerary records, not tickets or reservation confirmations.
